About Shawn Hansen

In 2006, I began writing professionally. I studied the craft, the market, and wrote lots and lots of words every single day. I committed to submitting something somewhere each week, and eventually, the stack of rejections included the occasional acceptance letter with a cash-money check attached. I have now published over 1,000 stories in a variety of places – many of which no longer exist. This is not my fault. I swear.

I've been an annual participant (and winner) of NaNoWriMo (National Novel Writing Month) since 2006. My first NaNoWriMo was life altering. I learned to write with abandon. My goal each day was simply to pound out 1,667 words – no matter how awful. It turns out that's how first drafts get done. It was also during the 2006 NaNoWriMo that my characters took over a story for the first of many times – it's one of the magical moments of writing, and I continue to have them.

Writing every day, and submitting and publishing on a regular basis are the keys to my success. There are plenty of keys to go around, so if you write, or you want to be a writer, grab a set of your own keys and get to work!

I'd love to connect with you!
